

A Little of Everything.

Vol. 4, No. 1. Flak Jubilee Singers May 21st. Gents' 4-hose at Deemer & Co's. See our line of hosiery. Deemer & Co. Dishonesty in any form don't go with religion. New line of Dimities just in at Deemer & Co's. Bicycle for sale at Ed. Gooder's from $25.00 up. With this issue THE STAR enters its fourth year. If you want nice silks, they are at Bing & Co's. Finest teas in town and cheap at Deemer & Co's. A union Sunday school was organized at Camp Run Sunday. The May term of court convenes on Monday of next week. Largest and cheapest line of ribbed vests at Deemer & Co's. Chaplain McCabe is to orate at Clearfield on Decoration Day. Remember there will be a celebration in Reynoldsville July 4th. Fast black hose for ladies, four pairs for 25c., at Deemer & Co's. Attend the Junior League meeting in Centennial hall Friday night. 6,000 doz. ladies' misses' and children's hose at Deemer & Co's. A new front is being put in the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store room. An all night session for town council is making long hours for that body. If you want Brussels carpet go to the Reynoldsville Hardware Co's store. A heavy but welcome storm passed over this place yesterday afternoon. Do not forget to look at the silks at Bing & Co's before buying elsewhere. Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18. Cashmeres, henriettes, serges and novelty dress goods—hard to beat—at Deemer & Co's. The Ram's Horn says if you pitch in to the devil there are men who will think you mean them. Gentlemen, call and see the fine line of suiting we are making to order for $16. Bell, the clothier. Quality of goods and low prices speak right out in meeting and say Robinson & Mundorff's is the place to trade. If you have not yet done so call at Robinson & Mundorff's, get acquainted, see their goods, get prices, etc. It will pay you. The Tin Horn says there are too many young men in this country who have been taught that it is a disgrace to sweat. Don't forget to call on Ed. Gooder when your watch is out of order, as he gives you best satisfaction and warrants all work. A branch of the Baltimore Building and Loan Association, of Baltimore, Md., will soon be organized in Reynoldsville. The annual convention of the Jefferson County Sunday School Association convened at Big Run yesterday and is in session to-day. Dr. C. N. Bell, the specialist, of Irwin, will be at Hotel McConnell Monday afternoon and Tuesday forenoon, May 13th and 14th. The third annual reunion of the West Middle District, Jr. O. U. A. M. Western Association will be held at East Brady on Friday, May 17th. A mineral has been discovered on the suburbs of Reynoldsville, near the Good-will farm. The water should be analyzed and its qualities made known. W. E. Yohe had the index finger of his right hand badly lacerated by coal falling on it in Big Soldier mine yesterday. The finger may have to be amputated yet. The novelty store that was opened up in the Bee Hive building one week ago last Friday, will be sold out by Sheriff Gourley to-day. Friday was an unlucky day in this case. What word in the English language the first letters of which signify a man, the first three a woman, the first four a great man, and the whole a great woman? Heroine. All members of Fire Co. No. 1 are requested to attend the meeting at the hose house on Thursday evening, May 9th, dressed in full uniform for the semi-annual inspection. During the thunder storm yesterday afternoon the M. E. church at Emersville was struck by lightning and the roof set on fire, but was extinguished before much damage was done. Whew! When the thermometer registers 92 degrees in the shade, as it did Sunday, those who have not shed their winter underwear yet begin to think that July weather has fallen in our midst. Builders look to your walls. "Adamant" is the perfection of wall plaster and is the result of a life devoted to scientific research. I can show you an interesting story about some of the imitation, H. Alex. Stokes, agent.

Ladies, call and see our new drapery fastener. It is just what you want. Deemer & Co.

The Jr. Prohibition League has a very interesting program for the meeting in Centennial hall Friday night, May 10th.

Ninian Cooper, the seed man, says he sold more seed this spring than he has any other season since going into the business in Reynoldsville.

One trouble with trading at Robinson & Mundorff's if you take a dollar and go there you get so many goods you need a wheelbarrow to get them home.

The town clock for the new school house does not strike very loud yet. It is hoped that the school directors will see to it that it proclaims the passing hours. Give us a town clock.

Wallace Lowther, who has been at Johnsonburg for a few months, will return to Reynoldsville to-day and open a barbershop in the building next door to Mrs. R. M. Alexander's millinery store.

Don't forget that there will be a big Fourth of July celebration in Reynoldsville this year. When you write to your friends tell them about it and invite them to come and have a good time.

During the heavy storm that passed over Reynoldsville yesterday lightning struck the house of Mrs. Ellen Walsh. The house was slightly damaged and Mrs. Walsh received quite a shock to her nerves.

The Knights of Pythias of the counties of Clarion, Clearfield, Elk, Indiana and Jefferson, will hold their annual reunion at Ridgway on June 21. R. H. Johnson, Grand Chancellor, of Pittsburgh, will deliver the oration of the day.

A Good Templars Society was organized in Centennial hall last Friday evening. The organization now has a membership of twenty-five. Meetings will be held every two weeks. Those who are interested say the society starts out with good prospects for the future.

There are so many new bicycles being ordered by Reynoldsville people that the factories are unable to turn out wheels fast enough to keep up with the demand, and those who order wheels have to wait two or three weeks longer than they expect to when the order is given.

A festival was held at the home of Joshua Shoemaker in Horn Settlement last Thursday evening to raise money to buy an organ to put in the school house in that neighborhood where religious services are held. A large crowd of young people were at the festival.

The Junior C. E. Society will give a "quilt" entertainment at the Presbyterian church Friday evening, May 10th, at 7:30. The "name quilt" containing over five hundred names will be exhibited, and an appropriate program rendered by the Juniors. A small admission fee of 5c. will be charged.

Mrs. Annie Snyder, wife of Joel Snyder of Winslow township, died on Friday night the victim of consumption. Her husband and five little children are left to mourn for her. Mrs. Snyder was the oldest daughter of Henry Kroh. Her remains were buried in the Lutheran cemetery Sunday afternoon.

In reporting the special meeting of town council last week we said that High Constable Rodgers had put in a bill of $2.50 for serving notices on people to clean up their premises. Mr. Rodgers' bill was $2.00 for serving the notices and fifty cents for burying a cat, but it was run in altogether and that is how the mistake occurred.

The Reynoldsville Woolen Co. has been getting the supply of water for the mill from a well, but with the increased capacity of the mill the supply of water is not sufficient for the demand, and the proprietors of the mill have had pipe laid from the mill to the run near by and propose to make the water of that stream do them good service.

At a meeting of the Grand Army Post held last night arrangements were made for celebrating Decoration Day in Reynoldsville. The program arranged was crowded out of this issue but will be published in THE STAR next week. The Grand Army Post will go to Rathmel on the afternoon of Decoration Day and assist in appropriate ceremonies.

Daniel Nolan, conductor on the gravel train, has his crew of men working along the line of the A. V. R'y in West Reynoldsville and when the work is completed there will be a decided improvement in the neighborhood of the passenger station and Supt. Rumsey's office. The railroad property across the track from these offices will be sold to within seven feet of the track and a fence will be built around it to keep people and cattle from trespassing thereon.

J. G. Buchanan, son of William Buchanan, of Allens Mills, was married to Miss Etta Engle on Wednesday, May 1st, at the Presbyterian parsonage in Beechwoods by Rev. Geo. H. Hill. The young couple will commence housekeeping in the old Buchanan homestead. Miss Engle made her home with John Dean in Horn Settlement since she was six years of age. The Alpine band of Allens Mills serenaded the newly wedded couple Wednesday evening. The Alpine is a good band and it never fails to honor the young people who get married.

One night last week A. L. Peters, of Hopkins, drove his horse and buggy to West Reynoldsville and tied the horse near the Ross House. When ready to go home Mr. Peters could not find his horse and buggy. He had about given up the hunt at eleven o'clock when he caught an intoxicated Pollander driving down Main street with his rig. The Pollander was arrested and put in the lock-up to sober up and to give an account of how he got possession of the rig. The horse had been driven hard, a whalebone whip broken to pieces on the animal and a robe lost. The following day the Pollander could not tell when, where or how he got the horse and buggy. He paid five dollars' cost and ten dollars to Mr. Peters for the robe, whip and abusing the horse. The supposition is that some one else used the horse and buggy and then gave it to the Pollander.

Arm Dislocated. J. F. Hinderliter and Frank Sutter were tussling in front of Bing & Co's store last Wednesday and Mr. Hinderliter got his left arm dislocated.

Amicably Settled. The case of assault and battery, with threats to shoot, that was preferred against Geo. Johnston the latter part of March by Mrs. Pat. McCloskey, both of Rathmel, was amicably settled before Esq. E. Neff last week.

Losing Boarders. Last winter there were as high as fifty-three men, women and children dependent upon the poor overseers of this borough for sustenance. The number has been reduced to sixteen—nine adults and seven children—and Messrs. Beebe and Trudgen expect to lose five of these sixteen this week.

A Printer Married. Invitations have been issued announcing the bans of C. A. Repsher, an employe of the Courier to Miss Mae Campbell, of Carrolltown, to take place at the Carrolltown church on Tuesday, May 7th, at 8:00 A. M.—Patton Courier.

Clarence A. Repsher, son of Mrs. Harriet Repsher, of Jackson street, was born and raised in Reynoldsville and his numerous friends will be a little surprised to learn that he has entered the matrimonial ranks. THE STAR extends congratulations.

Directors Meet. A meeting of the borough school directors was held in M. M. Davis' office Monday evening and the erection of the new school house was the gist of the meeting. Mr. McMaisters, Pittsburgh architect, was present. The plans of the building will be ready May 13th and by notice elsewhere in this issue it will be seen that the directors will receive bids from that date to June 3rd for the erection of the building. They expect to have the bonds in shape to sell at that time. It is likely that the matter of the school site will be taken into court before the price for it is settled on.

Killed by Fall of Roof. Milton Tuttle, a lad thirteen years old last fall, was killed in mine No. 1 at Eleonora last Friday by a portion of the roof falling upon him. In January of this year David Anderson, of Eleonora, got the boy from a home in Washington county through an aid society at Brookville. The boy was helping Mr. Anderson load a car of coal when the accident happened about 11:00 A. M. The boy died at 3:00 P. M. He had seven ribs broken, right arm broken, head badly cut and was injured internally. Mr. Anderson was in Reynoldsville Saturday for a casket and he seemed to feel deeply grieved over the sad accident.

Piscatorial Party. John "Marks" Conser, one of the proprietors of Hotel Dillman, Henry Debie, one of the proprietors of the Deible Bros. wagon factory, Alexander Riston, manufacturer of the famous "Hash-lah," Dr. James Buchanan Neale and Casper F. Hoffman, one of our jewelers, bundled up a camping outfit, fishing tackle, etc., and went to Harmless Fork, Potter county, last Thursday to fish for trout.

And now these anglers will congregate and premeditated preparations relate. Of how the Harmless Fork they struck. And had such exceedingly good luck. If you don't believe all as you listen remember that in that gang was Alex Riston; And if he don't tell you enough man. Then just call on "Marks" Conser or Hoffman.

Killed in a Mine. Last Thursday Harry Hawk, aged 20 years, was killed in the Keystone coal mine, one mile east of Lawsonham, on the Sligo Branch R'y, and his brother, Ellis, aged 16 years, had his right leg crushed by the roof falling in on them. The mine was idle that day and the young men went in to "stock up." The accident happened soon after dinner Thursday and no one outside knew anything about it until the men were going to work Friday and they heard the young man calling for help. Ellis could not extricate himself from the pile of coal but had to remain there beside the body of his dead brother sixteen or seventeen hours. His suffering was terrible. The young men were sons of a farmer who lived several miles away from the mine, but they "batched" in a shanty near the mine and that is the reason they were not missed.

Fifteen Dollars for a Ride. One night last week A. L. Peters, of Hopkins, drove his horse and buggy to West Reynoldsville and tied the horse near the Ross House. When ready to go home Mr. Peters could not find his horse and buggy. He had about given up the hunt at eleven o'clock when he caught an intoxicated Pollander driving down Main street with his rig. The Pollander was arrested and put in the lock-up to sober up and to give an account of how he got possession of the rig. The horse had been driven hard, a whalebone whip broken to pieces on the animal and a robe lost. The following day the Pollander could not tell when, where or how he got the horse and buggy. He paid five dollars' cost and ten dollars to Mr. Peters for the robe, whip and abusing the horse. The supposition is that some one else used the horse and buggy and then gave it to the Pollander.

In a Heap. Last Thursday evening John Welhan, representing Weaver Bros., confectioners of Bradford, and L. H. Wagoner, representing the Cary Safe Co. of Buffalo, were driving into Reynoldsville in Weaver Bros' confectionery wagon. The horse was trotting along at a reasonable speed when the kingbolt of the wagon broke and the two occupants were thrown to the ground violently while the horse trotted on with the front wheels of the wagon. Welhan was badly cut about the face. While meditating upon the catastrophe that had befallen them they saw three bugles coming in that direction as fast as the horses could run with two men in each buggy. The men were so deeply interested in the race that they did not see the wrecked wagon in the middle of the road until it was too late to stop and three horses, three bugles and six men were scattered over the ground promiscuously. No one was seriously injured but they were all bruised some. One buggy was badly wrecked. Two of the bugles were in a condition to continue the journey to Eleonora. A short distance from where this accident happened one of the horses got frightened, ran away, threw the two men out, broke the buggy and the horse took to the woods where it was found about one o'clock Friday morning. The six men were from Eleonora and had imbibed freely of Reynoldsville "tangle foot" and that is why they were driving so recklessly when the collision occurred. They certainly had "a time" on this occasion.

Enters the Fourth Year. For three years THE STAR has been enabled to surmount the difficulties, trials and tribulations that are here and there prominent in the pathway of country journalism, and it enters the fourth year with good hopes for the future. During the three years the paper has aimed to give its readers all the news, especially local news. How far the paper has succeeded the readers can have the privilege of answering for themselves. It is very probable that THE STAR has not at all times, during the twelvemonths, pleased all the subscribers, or those who borrow the paper to read it, but the editor did his best. An extra effort will be made in the coming year to make the paper better than it has been in the three years that have been checked off by old Father Time. There are a number of people in Reynoldsville and vicinity who read THE STAR but are not subscribers, and we hope they will drop into this office and get their names on the subscription list and help support the paper. At the very best there is not much money in running a country newspaper and the editor needs all the assistance possible, and every paid up subscription helps to defray the expense of the office. Then don't borrow but subscribe. We have no promises to make for the future.

Tree Fell on Him. John Hessel, an unmarried young man 23 years old, met a sad death in Paradise Settlement Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Jos. Syphrit and daughter were away from home, and after dinner Hessel went out to plow and about five o'clock his dead body was found in the field by Guy Cormesser, a lad from an adjoining farm. Hessel had not done any work after dinner, therefore, it is supposed the accident, which resulted in his death, happened soon after he went to the field, but it is not known how long he suffered before he died. His death was caused by a tree falling on him. The supposition is that the tree fell so easily that he did not know it was coming until it was on him. His right leg was broken in three places and the back of his head fractured. He crawled about six feet away from the tree and died with his face towards the ground and his head resting on his right arm. John Hessel was a motherless boy who came from Johnson town three years ago to make his home with Joseph Syphrit, whose second wife is the young man's aunt. The remains of the young man were buried in the Syphrit cemetery Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Gearheart conducted the funeral services.

Claims $10,000 Damage. About one year ago Mr. and Mrs. Jacob McCauley, of Brookwayville, were on their way to church one Sunday morning and a loose plank in the sidewalk on Main street of that borough, tripped Mrs. McCauley and threw her to the ground inflicting injuries from which she died a week later. Last week Sheriff Gourley served summons on each individual councillor of Brookwayville to appear at the May term of court to answer to the charge preferred by Jacob McCauley for $10,000 damages for the death of his wife. It is not necessary for the citizens of Reynoldsville to go to Brookwayville or any other town to find loose planks in sidewalks. Here and there they can be found in Reynoldsville. Property owners should see to it that all the planks in their sidewalks are nailed down.

Long Session. The town council cannot agree on a borough treasurer. There was a deadlock Monday night again and after 63 ballots council adjourned between four and five o'clock Tuesday morning without electing a treasurer. Esq. M. M. Davis, who has been the borough attorney for years, was dismissed Monday evening and a committee appointed to see G. M. McDonald, Esq., if he will accept the office. Lawyer McDonald will accept it.

Painful Accident. A man in Degnan & McDonald's Sandy Valley lumber camp had the flesh part of his right leg bruised and torn by a car on the branch that runs into the camp. The man was working with the night crew and the accident happened at four o'clock yesterday morning.

The Flek Jubilee Singers have visited nearly every city and town in England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Australia, Ceylon, India, Burma, Singapore, China, Japan, and they will visit Reynoldsville Tuesday evening May 21st. Misses' fine shoes at Deemer & Co's. Those who trade with Robinson & Mundorff march right up beside the band wagon. They get so much for their money they live well on small incomes. Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18. Ladies' fine shoes at Deemer & Co's.

Council Meeting. Council met in regular session on Monday evening, May 6th, all members being present. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. E. C. Burns appeared, as one of a committee appointed by the fire company to ask council to purchase a fire alarm bell; council, on motion, decided to purchase a 1,400-lb. bell for that purpose. A petition was presented asking for the appointment of a policeman for East Reynoldsville for Sunday nights, which, on motion, was rejected. A petition was presented asking for the passage of an ordinance to prohibit cattle from running at large at any time within the borough limits; this also, on motion, was rejected. A petition was presented asking council to cause to be laid a sidewalk on the north-west side of Ninth street, from Jackson street to Pleasant ave., and also from Ninth street, on north side of Pleasant ave. to borough line. It was moved, seconded and carried that the petition be accepted and placed on file. Bills were presented and ordered paid, to the amount of $452.74, consisting of interest on bonds $57.50, work on streets $293.80, and miscellaneous accounts and items $101.44. S. B. J. Saxton appeared and asked that council provide a hose house for the east end of Reynoldsville. It was moved, seconded and carried that a committee be appointed to secure a location for a hose house, and report to council as a body. The president appointed Messrs. Robertson, Heckman and Ritzle as the committee. Mr. Reynolds, as chairman of the finance committee, recommend to council that the millage for the ensuing year be fixed as follows: For borough purposes, two and one-half mills; for bond, one and one-half mills, and for water, one mill. It was moved seconded and carried that those rates be adopted. Mr. Shields reported that all the property owners between Third street and the run, with one exception, would be willing to furnish sewer pipe, if the borough would put same in. It was moved that the borough put the sewer in from the alley at Solomon Shaffer's up to Third street, providing a delivery for the water could be had at the alley at Shaffer's, which fact should be ascertained by the street committee. Motion seconded and carried. It was moved, seconded and carried that the resignation of Burgess Lattimer be rejected. An ordinance for the opening of Grant street from Richard Smith's to Tenth street, and Tenth street from Grant to Main, was presented and passed first reading. Council then proceeded to ballot for a borough treasurer. On the first five ballots W. B. Alexander and W. H. Bell each received three votes, and on the succeeding fifty-eight ballots W. B. Alexander and J. R. Pentz each received three votes, when a motion was made, seconded and carried that balloting be postponed until the next regular meeting. On motion the street commissioner was authorized to serve notices to repair pavements. It was moved, seconded and carried that the first petition presented for the planking of Main street from Thomas Reynolds' barn, Tenth street from Main street to Jackson, and Jackson street from Tenth street to Fifth street be accepted and acted upon, and the matter put to a vote of the people, and an ordinance providing therefor was presented and passed first reading. There being no further business, council adjourned.

Dogs Had a Jubilee. Reynoldsville has too many dogs. Not valuable ones, but too many of low ancestry, bad breeding and worthless, vicious habits, at least Frank J. Black, proprietor of Hotel McConnell, and his guests, and a number of other people in that neighborhood thought so last Sunday night. One or two dogs began barking and every street and alley produced a quota of whining, howling, snapping curs until, according to Black's statement, their number actually became like the sands on the seashore. The mob kept up the confusion until the proprietor could not stand the racket any longer and he got out of bed, dressed himself and with "blood in his eyes" and a revolver in his hand, he sallied forth to murder a number of the canines, but when the gentle breeze came in contact with his heated brow he decided not to shoot. Mr. Black, however, was surprised when he discovered that the dogs were amusing themselves by chasing one of his valuable cows up and down the streets and alleys. If the number of dogs in this town could be divided by two, and one-half be killed and three-fourths of the remainder could be induced to go to sleep with their necks across the rail of the R. & F. C. R'y and remain in that position until an engine and train of coal cars passed by, it would be a decided advantage in the way of quietness at night.

On Tuesday Loudin's Jubilee Singers gave their farrowell performance to a crowded house. The singing throughout was as before, perfect, and many of the pieces were applauded again and again, leaving no alternative but double encore at times. Music, without doubt, hath charms; and certainly such music as we hear in Loudin's talented Jubilee Singers, who have charmed the ears and hearts of so many of us during the past two weeks.—Bobby (India) Gazette. At Centennial Hall Tuesday evening, May 21st.

Gentlemen, call and see the fine line of suiting we are making to order for $18. Bell, the clothier. Our $1.25 shoe compares well with most $2.00 shoes. Deemer & Co.
